TALK ABOUT THE WEATHER

What's up with this freakin' weather? One day it's summer like, the next cold & rainy. Is it just me or has something changed since I was a kid? Back in the day the summers were hot, not the unbearable heat waves smothered in thick, choking humidity like there is now, but they were hot the whole way through & winter was cold cold enough to keep a good snow for about a week or more (I lived up North), not flesh ripping winds & ferrenchd/ snows followed by 2 weeks of 80° weather before the next cold like I've seen recently. And you wonder why everyone has a cold? It's crazy, when I sit melting in the summer sun wearing as little as the law will allow & I think about the pioneer woman. They had to wear massive amounts of clothes as they WALKED across the country. How could they possibly stand it? Well they didn't have heat like this back then & the places they did, they wore less clothes. The truth is, the strain we've put on the earth, trying to make ourselves more comfortable just makes us more uncomfortable. By the constant use of air conditioning we just make AC standard instead of an option. You can't stress nature out & expect nothing in return. It makes you wonder w/ the races in technology & the surplus population, how long will it be before we have to colonize space? I hear the weather's lovely there this time of year.

What's Up With the Weather?
PBS, 9 p.m.
 Global warming is all our fault; carbon dioxide emissions are leaving us open for disaster. Some scientists believe that Mother Nature is behind the warming trend, and that all that extra carbon dioxide is good for the environment. This co-production of PBS' "Nova" and "Frontline" devoted two hours to the issue.

You may remember this one from childhood, when magic was real every day. This is truly an optical illusion, where the eye plays tricks on the spectators. Hold a knife by its handle so that your thumb is underneath & the index finger is on top. (Fig. 2.)

DO NOT hold it to tightly! Move the wrist up & down in an arc of about 3 to 4 inches. Because you are holding it off center the knife will wobble in a strange fashion, appearing to be made of rubber.

Get a bum back w/ this simple magic trick. Ask them for the assistance of their pack of cigarettes & tell them, "I will miraculously make this package a cigarette lighter." Remove a single cancer stick & say: "There. It is now one cigarette lighter!"
 Ta-da!

HAPPY BIRTHDAY ADOLF!

April 20th the happy holiday of heads everywhere happens to fall on the birthday of one of history's most heinous archvillains, Adolf Hitler. In a pot induced paranoia a person could presume a police plot to somehow brainwash the stoner sect w/ their subliminal Nazi propaganda. I say the man's burning where he should be so fire it up @ four twenty four twenty & fuck it. But if you're brave enough to conceive the conspiracy try tasting some of these traditional German treats when you're toking.

Kartoffelpuffer (POT ato PUFFS)

- 4 large potatoes
 - 2 eggs
 - 1 cup milk
 - 3 tbs. flour
 - salt
 - 1 tbs. fat
 - sugar (if desired)
- FOREIGN LANGUAGE LAB
 bison: GER. v. to bite
- Pare & grate raw potatoes. Drain off liquid. Mix w/ eggs, milk, flour & salt to form a firm dough. Heat fat in a skillet; put dough in skillet, 2 tbs. @ a time, & spread out thinly to form small pancakes. Fry on both sides to a rich golden brown. Sprinkle w/ either salt or sugar & serve hot. Serves 4.

Gebackener Hirn (Baked Brains)

- 2 calf's brains
- salt & pepper
- 1 egg
- bread crumbs
- fat
- lemon slices
- parsley

Soak brains in cold water 1 hour, remove membrane, & cook for 5 minutes in salted water. Remove & cool. Cut each in 3 parts. Sprinkle w/ well w/ seasonings. Tumble in beaten egg & bread crumbs. Brown in hot fat. Garnish w/ lemon slices & parsley. Serve w/ Pot ato salad. Serves 4.

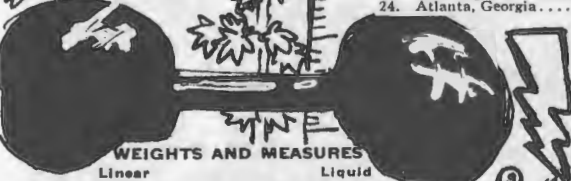

"It is a plant - this thing that we are about to discuss: a green plant, a very abundant & ubiquitous plant, an unusually valuable economic plant, possibly a dangerous plant, certainly in many ways a mysterious plant."

What does your sub conscious say to you?

 Throughout time people have relied on their dreams to understand themselves and the world around them. Ancient rulers kept interpreters close at hand to help make decisions of state, believing their dreams to be prophetic. But who hasn't heard the stories? Someone who dreamed getting on a plane right before it crashed or a mother who woke up in the night, saying just dreamed her child was hurt, only to arise the next morning & find out, it's true.

Psychiatrists & therapists use dream analysis as a way to probe parts of patient's sub consciousness of which even they weren't aware. This type of treatment can significantly reduce the amount of time spent on identifying the problem & allows the focus to be on a solution. If you want to learn more about your dreams try keeping a notebook by your bed & jot down what ever you can remember when you wake up. And don't say that you don't have dreams, everyone does. We Sand: This dream is indicative of famine & loss.

Banana: 'To dream of bananas foretells that you will be mated to an uninteresting & uninvolved companion.

Waves: This is a sign that you hold some vital step in contemplation, which will evoke much knowledge if the waves are clear; but if they're muddy or stormy you will make a fatal error.

Digging: 'To dream of digging means that you will never be in want, but life will be an uphill battle.

dream in 3 hour cycles & interrupting that cycle is what causes us to remember. Try adjusting your sleep schedule. going to bed or waking up a half an hour earlier or later. It will make all the difference.

Note to: A MAN (DUFF)

High there. Hope everything's going okay for you, I really wouldn't know. How long has it been since I've talked to you, or heard from you? I can't even remember. It's funny because you know, I thought we were friends. All those times we were talking about friendships that last & close & it turns out all that was just bullshit! It's no wonder you know everyone in town yet you don't want to talk to anyone, you always ran away before they could tell you what they really thought & now you're afraid of what they'll say. I can't be mad though, before they left your old room mates told me you'd do exactly what you did. Silly me, I had faith in you as a person. I guess I know better now. What really bugs me is all the time & effort I wasted on a bond that meant so little to you that there was no need at all for you to look back or even say good-bye. I thought you just needed a strong friend who'd been there to talk to, to lean on, to encourage & inspire you? I tried hard to be that friend. You were a frightened little child, so scared by everything to even see the world. I tried to show you the strength & the beauty you could find inside your own self but maybe I was wrong. Maybe you're just a manipulating nymph so self-absorbed that you're blind to who you really are. You just use one person after another until they can't do any more for you, or maybe someone has come along who can do more, or maybe you just got bored & decided to "return" the friendship & get a new one until you get tired of that one & try to "return" it too. Just like when you were a kid, oh wait, you still are. Well I hope you're happy. That whoever you're trying to be now isn't letting your mind & your talent go to waste, that your friend/flavor of the week cares as genuinely about you as my family & I did. I hope they fill your head w/creativity & wrap you up w/good vibes & wishes. I pray they can guide you spiritually, that you may strengthen your relationship with God. Maybe you'll find some one you can trust your deeper darker secrets with & know they're safe, that no one else will find out. I thought you might have been one of those people, I was. But again fuck me for faith in you. It won't happen again.

Little Pissed off girl says: Fuck you! you suck!

You Bet I'm Happy

After 8 long months away my Sublime bike has found its way home! A special thank to the 2 guys that helped me liberate the blue bike from its captor(s) after 15 minutes of struggling in broad day light w/ a better lock & chain than I'd left on it. So many people saw us stealing back my bike but when 2 guys walked out of a door & onto the crime scene I had to speak up, "Do you know whose bike this is?" when they shook their heads I told them "It's MY bike & if anyone asks tell them it's okay because she got it back!" Abused & neglected my beautiful bicycle was hurting, the back rim all bent up & the chain rusted over but reunited with its adoring owner, thanks to a little flyer & a lot of love, the blue bike of happiness will ride again this summer!

CELEBRATE IF YOU'RE CELIBATE

Why is it whenever the moon is full, or the mood is right, or there's something wrong, or they're just really cute, or maybe that last beer was one to many people tend to abandon rationality & regard for self respect & jump in the bed or back seat of the closest warm body? Slipping senselessly into meaningless unproductive relationships built primarily on mutual lack of interest, loneliness, & semi decent sex. Sure it feels like love now, they've told you everything your deflated self esteem needs to hear & after two weeks, months, how can't you know someone's inner soul? Not to mention, "everyone else is doing it." You don't want to be the only loser not getting any. Besides, how could any-one possibly be expected to resist all those primal hormonal urges when constantly confronted with a sex-crazed society. We live in a world of fuck friends & Internet porn.

Pretty soon they'll allow nudity in PG movies. Every magazine cover is cluttered with articles on "10 tricks for a better orgasm". Our own President can't keep his pants on. What sort of roll models are Monica Lewinski & Marilyn Manson? Sex is everywhere. You have to be 18 to get an Abrocumbie catalogue!! Jenny Jones has 12 year old sex addicts & HBO is showing penises for ratings. So after a series of one night stands, using & being used, maybe a little to much alcohol, maybe to many pain killers, do you even remember that one's name from two weeks ago? You've found the one that's right, right for right now at least. But how clearly are you thinking? How careful are you being? They make you all tingly on the inside & you're feeling terribly comfortable with one another, comfortable enough to start getting sloppy. When was the last time either one of you was Tested? If you're really in love don't you owe it to each other, to yourself, to humanity? A germ becomes an epidemic through ignorance, & disease is viciously circulated into society until only a small minority is uninfected. Not to mention the natural occurrence in this the year of the dragon, the first of the new century for thereto be a surge in population.

Right now is the Generation X baby boom, the birth of the millennium baby. Think about it, have you noticed more babies & expectant mothers around? It's not just you. Almost every single young female friend (or friend of friend) of mine has gotten pregnant or will be delivering this year. How was I alone able to avoid this life altering fate that befell my closest friends? Well I always heard marijuana decreased the sex drive & I guess over the past two & a half years I proved it (at least to myself). I have had intercourse a grand total of zero times & as I listen to people goon about their elicited exploits with a plethora of people I wonder if I am alone in the belief that my sexuality is special, it's a gift I'll give someone when I know our relationship will stand the test of time & what better way to know that it will than to give it sometime. If you're going to be together forever, time's one of the things you've got. I'm not saying don't have fun, or don't have a release, do it by yourself or with a partner but is actual intercourse really necessary?

Roman Red's Forum

Red, I love you man, I read your forum all the time so I had to write you. Now you may say that this some crazy fish story but it's all true. Earlier this year me & a couple of buddies chartered a boat to go out deep sea fishing. We were kicking back drinking, smoking, & carrying on when my line started racing. I set the hook & after struggling for 15 Minutes or more that felt like an eternity, two of my boys helped me reel in one of the biggest blue marlin's I'd ever seen) The funny thing is, when we cut open his gut we found a brick of some of the sweetest dankest bud. I don't know how it got in there but it was some of the best shit I ever smoked (aside from the fishy after taste).

Herb Fisher
Wanchese, OBX

Hey there, Red, I love your column. How much of it do you think is really real? Well, this story is & I almost wish it weren't but I've got to share it so it doesn't happen to any of your other readers. It's all well & good when you find weed, shoot at the moment you think you're the luckiest person on in the world. I was totally dry one day when I happened upon almost an entire joint just lying in the road & I started dancing right there in the street. But after smoking it I came to the realization that my spiff from heaven was laced! So just to warn everyone, be careful what you smoke off the ground!

The ultimate road trip movie takes our two heroes from the score of a lifetime onto a cross-country ride of a lifetime in search of the premiere party, Mardi Gras. They roll through the drug underculture of '60's America braving one adventure after another encountering new people (like Jack Nicholson in one of his most famous roles) and new prejudices in the most unexpected & some of the more likely places. No matter what comes or goes though with each new day they mount their choppers ready to face the next turn in the road.
